

COLLEGIO
GLASONE
DEL MAINO

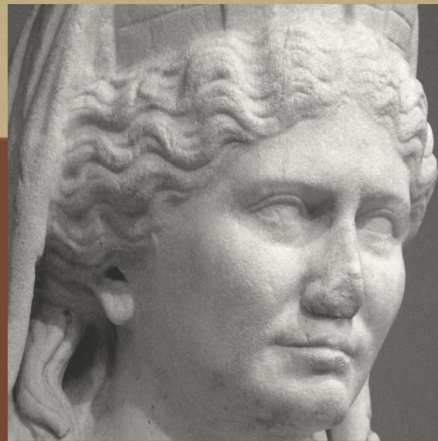

UNIVERSITÀ DI PAVIA
Dipartimento di
Studi Umanistici

COLLEGIO DEL MAINO,
AULA MAGNA,
APRIL 7, 18.00
APRIL 9, 9.00

PALAZZO S.TOMMASO,
AULA BOTTIGELLA,
APRIL 8, 9.00

PHRYGIA

BETWEEN THE EAST AND THE WEST

Phrygia between the East and the West Program

Thursday April 7, 2022, Collegio del Maino, Aula Magna

- 18.00 Anatolian Sources of Etruscan Imagery in the Orientalizing and Archaic Age
M. Harari, Università di Pavia

Friday April 8, 2022, Palazzo S. Tommaso, Aula Bottigella

- 9.00 Greetings and introduction

- 9.15 Introduction
N. Lovejoy, ISAW-New York University

Phrygian power and identity

- 9.30 Between the East and the West: formation and apogee of the Phrygian kingdom
L. d'Alfonso, ISAW-New York University, Università di Pavia

- 10.00 Separating Fact from Fiction in the Phrygian Migration
K. Morgan, Duke University

- 10.30 Phrygia and the West: Between Migration and Identity Formation
A. Kotsonas, ISAW-New York University

Coffee break

Power and identity at Gordion

- 11.30 Gordion in the Middle Phrygian Period: 800-540 BCE
Ch. B. Rose, University of Pennsylvania

- 12.00 Cooking at Gordion: some considerations of Phrygian identity through the analysis of culinary practices
G. Casucci, Università di Pavia

- 12.30 Tumulus construction at Iron Age Gordion: power and connectivity among Early Phrygian elites
B. Cordvari, ISAW- New York University

- 13.00 Gordion, the East and the West: The Case of «Phrygian» Metal Vessels
E. Regazzoni, Universität Basel

Lunch Break

Technology, trade, and long-distance interaction

- 15.00 From Urartian Highland to Phrygian Highland - The Two Great Kingdoms of the Anatolian Iron Age. Some Thoughts and Observations on Their Relations
M. Işıklı, Atatürk Üniversitesi Erzurum
- 15.30 An Analysis on the Relations of Urartu and Phrygia by means of archaeological data
A. Ayşegül Aras, M.A. Özdemir, O. Aras, Atatürk Üniversitesi Erzurum
- 16.00 Between Urartu and Phrygia. An evaluation of possible cultural relations between the two Iron Age kingdoms
A.S. Bonfanti, Università di Pavia; A. Cesaretti, ISMEO; R. Dan, ISMEO

Tea Break with poster session

S. Adcock, J. Ross: Animal Technologies, Textile Production, and Economic Organization at Early and Middle Iron Age Çadır Höyük; A.A. Baaklini, M. Spruyt, The Phrygian Banquet and its Near Eastern Influence: A View From the Tableware; M. Demanuelli, Phrygia and its eastern neo-hittite neighbors (8th – 7th c. B.C.) : the cultural and political interactions; K. Euler-Sasseville, The Phrygian origin of ancient clay roofs; P. Maranzana, Connectivity in the north-western Anatolia plateau in the Roman Period: was long distant trade a byproduct of urban elite self-display?; F. Sorbello, The cult of Meter Theon in Classical and Hellenistic Athens: between Ionian and Attic Identity; M. Vivonia, The Phrygian Cap and Other Oriental Dress: How the East Became the West; D. Winchell, Fragility and the Negotiation of Power in the Early Phrygian Polity

Technology, trade, and long-distance interaction

- 17.30 Export and imitation abroad: on the spread of the graywares in southern Cappadocia
A. Mantovan, Università di Pavia
- 18.00 Lydia between Phrygia and the West in the Early First Millennium BCE
G. Eren, Boston University
- 18.30 A Fluid Political Landscape: Power and Hegemony in Iron Age Phrygia
M. Santini, Princeton University

20.00 Dinner

Saturday April 9, 2022, Collegio del Maino, Aula Magna

Expression through monument and imagery

- 9.00 The westernness of the Phrygian culture
M. Vassileva, New Bulgarian University
- 9.30 Peak Sanctuaries and Sacred Mountains in Phrygia and Surrounding Regions during the Late Bronze and Iron Ages
M. Massa and J. Osborne, OI-University of Chicago
- 10.00 Carving Yourself a Niche in Anatolia: Phrygian Rock-Cut Monuments in a Regional Context
T.P. Kisbali, Lomonosov Moscow State University
- 10.30 Birds of prey in 1st millennium central Anatolia: the transmission of a cultic tradition
M. Derada, Scuola archeologica italiana di Atene

Coffee break

Expression through writing

- 11.30 The use of script in negotiating identity in Iron Age Central Anatolia
R. Schnell, ISAW-New York University
- 12.00 Comparing adoptions and adaptations: from Anatolia and Greece to Persia and Sub-Saharan Africa
N. Luraghi, Oxford University
- 12.30 The state of hieroglyphic writing in late 9th – early 8th c. BCE Anatolia: reintroduced or continued?
P. Goedegebuure, OI-University of Chicago

Lunch Break

Memory and reception in Greco-Roman times

- 14.30 Homeric Phrygians and the Inhabitants of Gordion's Citadel: a Story told by Names
R. Oreshko, CNRS, CHS-Harvard University
- 15.00 Considerations on the temple model of Daskyleion and its impact on the early archaic temple architecture of Ionia
W. Held, Marburg Universität
- 15.30 Shifting Perspectives: Looking at Phrygia from the Black Sea
L. Summerer, Arkin University of Creative Arts and Design; J.M. Koch, Justus-Liebig-University Gießen

Tea Break

Memory and reception in Greco-Roman times II

- 16.30 Hierapolis of Phrygia: new research on the Iron Age
G. Semeraro, Università del Salento
- 17.00 Meter-Kybele in the Pergamon Micro-region
G. Ateş, Celal Bayar Üniversitesi Manisa; Felix Pirson, DAI Istanbul
- 17.30 Food, Feasting, and the Roman Adoption of Anatolian Cybele
B. Keslinke, University of Pennsylvania
- 18.00 Memories in Motion: Reconstructing Phrygian Memoryscapes of Graeco-Roman Times
A. Gandini, Università di Pavia

